

Hello and welcome to Koinonia!

Thank you for your interest in joining our staff team. Koinonia offers great job opportunities where you will use your talents to do incredible ministry!

Being a role model for children... Teaching from the heart... Living in Christian service.... Making friends that last a life-time.... Gaining valuable career training... These are just a few of the rewards of being a Koinonia staff.

Owned and operated by the Martin Luther Camp Corporation, Koinonia is a place of renewal serving the largest city in the world. We are located about 90 miles northwest of Manhattan on 1200 acres of dense forest in the foothills of the Catskill Mountains. Koinonia was founded as a residential wilderness youth camp in 1963, and since then has expanded its year round ministry to include New York City day camps (New Ground) and servant events, environmental education (Creation Learning Center), family camping, and youth and adult retreating. Learn more about us by visiting our web site at www.KoinoniaNY.org.

Our philosophy of ministry comes from the Old Testament story of Abraham and Sarah. God called them into a journey and blessed them in ways they could not imagine! God blessed them so that they could be a blessing to others. So too, it is with Koinonia. We have great gifts of land and people, and through God, the staff creates powerful experiences for our guests to be renewed, nurtured and strengthened in their faith.

If you are interested in being a part of our staff community, please complete the enclosed application and 3 written references, and return to Koinonia. Upon receiving your application, one of our directors will contact you for an interview. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Lisa Spitler
